

Treating the Pet Chicken Victoria Roberts BVSc MRCVS

WHEN: Thursday 12th September, 2013
7.30pm – approx. 10pm.

WHERE: Meadow Bank Farm
Whitchurch Road
Broxton
Cheshire CH3 9JS.

WHO: Anyone interested in pet chickens can learn of their husbandry, health and diseases, plus how to handle them safely using live hens.

HOW: contact 01948 820345 to book.

COST: £5 entry.

REFRESHMENTS: Meadow Bank Farm rears first class beef and there will be beef baps plus tea and coffee for only £5 extra, booking necessary.

Kindly sponsored by

Pinmoore Animal Laboratory Services (PALS), The Coach House, Town House Barn, Cotton, Cheshire CW6 0EG. 01829 733523.

PALS provides veterinary diagnostic services with the sole purpose of providing high quality and accurate laboratory results. We aim to offer a friendly, personalised laboratory service that meets the needs of the patient whilst being convenient and cost effective.

Victoria Roberts BVSc MRCVS

Victoria has had 40 years of breeding and judging exhibition poultry and waterfowl. She is honorary avian lecturer at Liverpool Vet School, edits the British Poultry Standards, has had a column in Country Smallholding for 13 years, is a Past President of the British Veterinary Zoological Society and currently their Administrator. Victoria has several books on poultry in print and her website is www.vicvet.com.

This evening lecture has been organised by Euan Bryson BVM&S MRCVS,
Hampton Vet Group, Malpas, Cheshire